

Before this law, our family had so many telephone solicitors calling, we had to shut off the telephone to complete our family dinner every evening. Do you really think the families would have signed by for this law if it wasn't necessary? Leave our Indiana law for our Indiana families to enjoy their family time during our after work hours.